Pastor’s Corner

As we enter the Advent season, I invite everyone to remember what we are celebrating: the earthly birth of the Messiah, the world's savior, our Immanuel, Jesus. The Christ Child was, is, and always will be the perfect gift given to humankind. It is so easy to get caught up in all the “things” we need to do or want to get done that we often forget what is truly important, accepting the gracious gift that God has given us. A living gift that grew up to die on the cross and then be resurrected so that we can be reconciled to God. A gift that offers forgiveness and eternal life. A gift that wants a personal relationship with you. Merry Christmas.
