Pastor’s Corner

July is a great month to think about the word freedom. As Americans, we tend to think of freedom in terms of our rights, including our right to be free from tyrannical rule. But many are ruled by the tyranny of sin; scripture says we are slaves to it. Jesus came to free us from our condition and offers a different kind of monarchy—a monarchy where we are truly free in our King. John 8:36 tells us that if the Son sets you free, you really will be free. I invite you to consider which is the greater freedom. Which is more important, your “rights” or your King?
