Pastor's Corner

1 Thessalonians 5:18 (ESV)

Give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Christmas is just around the corner, but first we get to enjoy Thanksgiving! The Old Testament has over 100 verses about gratitude, and the New Testament has more than 70. For the original Hebrew mindset, giving thanks is completely connected to who God is. The Greek word for thanks gives us “eucharist,” which many know as “communion”—a meal that reminds us of who Christ is and what He did for us. As Thanksgiving approaches, I’d love to invite you to thank God for at least one thing each day. As you do, keep in mind that everything you’re grateful for is linked to God and His work for us in Christ.
