Pastor's Corner

The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God will stand forever. Isaiah 40:8

As the leaves begin to change colors and fall, some may be tempted to think things are coming to an end, and the calendar year is. But it is also Nature setting up the beginning of the next cycle of renewed life. Eventually, even the cycle of seasonal change as we know it will come to an end when God presents the new heaven and the new earth. But even then, God's word will continue to stand, and as believers we will be there to witness it. This time of year, I am reminded how much better it is to place my faith in God's word than in anything else. Let me encourage you to establish a habit of spending a few minutes with his word each day. Oh, and go enjoy a pumpkin-spiced flavored something; it's that time of year.
